

COLLEGE-BOUND PROGRAMS

Barrington High School and Barrington Community School are again co-sponsoring a number of programs designed for the college-bound student, including "Preparing For The S.A.T.," an 8-week course designed to prepare students for the November 6 exam. A brief review of English and math will be supplemented by coaching in test-taking skills for this standardized examination, used as a major criterion in evaluating for college admissions. The Tuesday evening course, which begins September 14, will consist of eight 2-hour classes, which will meet from 7:00-9:00 p.m. at the high school. Tuition, which includes both course tuition and book fee, is $225.

Kevin Blanchard of the BHS English department, and Lawrence Byrne, former BHS Director of Guidance, will conduct the course.

Also offered will be Preparing for the PSAT, a 3-session course designed to prepare students for the October 16th exam date at the high school. This course will meet on Wednesday evenings, September 29, October 6 and 13, from 7:00-9:00 P.M. at Barrington High School, and will also be conducted by Kevin Blanchard and Lawrence Byrne (see above). Tuition, which includes both course tuition and test materials, is $75.

Writing Your College Application Essay will be held on Wednesday, September 22 from 7:00-8:30P.M. at the High School, Room 101. The class will be taught by Hannah R. Goodman, a former high school English teacher who has spent the past seven years tutoring students in college application essay writing. This one-session workshop is especially helpful to seniors applying for early decision in the fall, as well as those filing by the regular deadlines. The fee is $15 for students, $20 for adults.
